From the Secretary's Desk.....

It's my pleasure that WORD, Keonjhar has brought out its 18th annual report. Since 18 long years WORD has been working towards the welfare and development of mankind in the area of Keonjhar and Deogarh District. Our major areas of concern are Education, Women Empowerment, Health, Environment Protection and Sustainable Livelihood . We have highly been successful in most of our activities like programmes on education and empowerment of women etc. We have organized lot many campaigns on different issues.

The programmes and requirements are many but the resources are limited which acted as a barrier to do more and intensive work on each issues/focus area of WORD. In spite of limited resources both physical and manpower resources, still then we have put our whole-hearted efforts to bring in development in our State. There have been strong challenges all through the way. Many a times we saw the ugly face of failure in our endeavor. But these taught us to struggle harder in order to achieve our goal .

I am thankful to the donor agencies who extended their generous support without which it would have been impossible to reach so far. I am also highly grateful to all our friends and well wishers for their moral support and cooperation. I would also like to extend my heartfelt gratitude to all my staff members who have untiringly worked day and night for the upliftment of the organization .

There is a long way to go, as lot many have yet to be done for the people. Expecting the support and cooperation of all, I gain thank all of them who are behind WORD.

Pramila Panda
Secretary

Women Empowerment:

Empowerment is a process that challenges our assumptions about the way things are and can be. It challenges our basic assumptions about power, helping, achieving, and succeeding. The empowerment of women occur in reality, when women achieve increased control and participation in decision making that leads to their better access to resources, and therefore, improved socio-economic status. At the operational level, empowering process entails those ideas/actions which enable women to understand their situation. It enables them to exercise their rights for a just share in the power and resources at all level. It enhances women to participate in the decision making process which brings about changes in their living conditions.

WORD has put in its efforts to empower rural women by taking up different plans and projects. It has been organizing various kinds of orientation, training and awareness programmes in order to develop a sense of awareness among them.

HEALTH

Maternal health refers to the health of women during pregnancy, childbirth and the postpartum period. While motherhood is often a positive and fulfilling experience, for too many women it is associated with suffering, ill-health and even death. Children represent the future, and ensuring their healthy growth and development ought to be a prime concern of all societies. Newborns are particularly vulnerable and children are vulnerable to malnutrition and infectious diseases, many of which can be effectively prevented or treated. WORD works in the health sector particularly on issues related to maternal and child health. It also works with people affected with HIV/AIDS and generates awareness on health and nutrition among the elected PRIS and the general people. It also works among the Anganwadi workers. Since the 1960s activism by the environmental movement has created awareness of the various environmental issues.
